HOLBROOK, ARIZONA SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1906

No. 36

A PROCLAMATION

By The Governor of Arizona.

Of an order for Election for voting for Delegates to a Proposed Convention for the Formation of a Constitution for the Proposed State of Arizona to be Composed of New Mexico and Arizona as now Constituted, and to Vote upon the Question of the proposed Jointure. To the Qualified Electors of the Territory of Arizona, and to Whom-soever it may Concern: Know Ye: That heretofore, to wit: on the fourteenth day of July, 1906, by virtue and direction of, and in accordance with, the provisions of an act of Congress entitled:

"An Act To enable the people of Oklahoma and of the Indian Territory to form a constitution and State government and be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States; and to enable the people of New Mexico and of Arizona to form a constitution and State government and be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States," approved June 16th 1906.

The Governor, the Chief Justice, and the Secretary of the Territory of Arizona apportioned the 44 delegates proposed under the provisions of said act of Congress to be elected from Arizona, who, together with the 66 delegates proposed to be elected from New Mexico, may constitute a convention for said Territories of New Mexico and Arizona to form a constitution for the proposed State of Arizona, among the several counties of Arizona as follows:

To Apache county... 1 Delegate;
To Cochise county... 8 Delegates;
To Coconino county 2 Delegates;
To Gila county..... 3 Delegates;
To Graham county... 5 Delegates;
To Maricopa county 8 Delegates;
To Mohave county... 1 Delegate;
To Navajo county... 1 Delegate;
To Pima county..... 4 Delegates;
To Pinal county..... 1 Delegate;
To Santa Cruz county 1 Delegate;
To Yavapai county... 7 Delegates;
To Yuma county..... 2 Delegates.

And know ye further by this proclamation: That under the authority, and by the direction of the provisions of said act of congress, it has been by the governor of Arizona, and is now by this proclamation, ordered:

That at the general election to be held in the said territory of Arizona on the 6th day of November, 1906, the said delegates apportioned to the said convention as aforesaid, shall be voted for by the electors qualified to vote at said general election, in said several counties.

And it is further ordered: That there shall also be submitted to the qualified electors at said general election, a question which shall be stated on the same ballots on which the names of candidates for delegates to the convention aforesaid are printed in substance and form as follows:

"Shall Arizona and New Mexico be admitted to form one state?"

"—Yes."

"—No."

Electors desiring to vote in the affirmative on that question shall place a cross mark in the square to the left of the word "Yes;" and those desiring to vote in the negative shall place a cross in the square to the left of the word "No;" in the form above prescribed.

Such election shall be conducted in all respects as prescribed by the laws of the said territory of Arizona governing general elections.

The returns of said election for delegates to the proposed constitutional convention shall be made, and the certificates of persons elected thereto issued, as near as may be in the same manner as is prescribed by the laws of the territory of Arizona regulating the election therein of members of the legislative assembly of said territory, and as further prescribed by said act of congress.

And the result of the said election upon the question above directed to be submitted to the electors at said election shall be ascertained, returned, and duly certified, as nearly as it is practicable to be done, in the manner prescribed by the laws of this territory for the ascertainment, return and certification of the results of the election for delegate to congress, and as further prescribed by said act of congress.

And the several precinct, county, and territorial officers in the territory who are charged by law with any duties relating to general elections are, so far as those duties are applicable to the election hereby ordered, and not inconsistent with said act of congress likewise charged with the performance thereof in respect to this election; and in addition thereto, such other duties in respect thereto, as are prescribed by the provisions of said act of congress.

In witness whereof, I, Joseph H. Kibbey, governor of Arizona, have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the territory to be affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this fourteenth day of July, A. D. 1906.

(Seal) JOSEPH H. KIBBEY.

By the Governor,

W. F. NICHOLS,

Secretary of the Territory of Arizona.

Consumer Knows What He is Getting.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The new meat inspection law becomes effective today and Secretary Wilson has completed all arrangements looking to its absolute enforcement throughout the country. Hereafter all canned meats must be properly and truthfully labeled in order to pass through the channels of interstate commerce.

It has been decided that the law does not effect goods now in stock, although they cannot be shipped from one state to another.

Any deception in the labels used on meat products in the future will involve a heavy fine.

Kettle rendered lard must be actually rendered in a kettle and "pure" lard must be really pure.

Any admixture of other meats in potted or deviled ham or tongue will deprive the product of its name.

Boneless chicken or turkey must be from fowls named and be from bones.

Many other similar rulings have been made by the department of agriculture, to the end that the consumer may know what he is buying.

Dowie en Route to Mexico to Regain His Health.

St. Louis Oct. 2.—John Alexander Dowie passed through this city today enroute to Mexico whither he goes for the benefit of his health. He looks very feeble, but expresses confidence that he will ultimately return to Zion and regain his powers which he claims are now being usurped by those he made in his palmy days.
